ETERE was very pleased to meet you at NAB Show 2015 in Las Vegas, this year we have been confirmed as one of the leading companies in the broadcast industry thanks to your valuable support and our ability to anticipate new market moves, look for new potential markets and develop new technologies.

Once again, thank you for making time to meet with us or stopping at our booth at NAB 2015, we value your continued partnership and look forward to continue working and collaborating with you.

We take this opportunity to invite you to access your Private Area on our website and download (under the "NAB 2015" folder of your "Distributors Files") all the presentations given during the distributors meeting, these detailed documents will allow you to better understand the scopes and functioning of Etere's products. We remind you that all documents are confidential and not subject to public disclosure.
