

Etere code of Ethics

Besides the general principles of law enforcement, transparency, honesty, fairness and good faith, the Code of Ethics highlights the objectives of sustainable development, including in respect of the liability of the territories in which it operates, the protection of the rights of third generation and the defense and promotion of Human Rights.

Version 2.1 1st July 2015

Etere logo