About Integrated Systems Europe (ISE)

Integrated Systems Europe, often referred to as ISE, is the world-renowned annual tech show for the audiovisual and systems integration industry. It is organised and run by Integrated Systems Events. The industry turns to ISE for the inspiration and motivation required to drive things forward. At the four-day event each February, our attendees reconnect with virtually impossible experiences, with networking opportunities, state-of-the-art technology, and their own career development. Since the first ISE in 2004, the event has grown year-on-year. In 2024, we hosted over 1,400 exhibitors (with countless new product launches) and our attendees made over 172,000 visits to the show.
