Auto Censorship Segment

Auto Censorship

Imagine setting personalised content parameters, running an automated workflow, and in a few clicks, any video segments with images that breach the censorship parameters are promptly flagged for review, saving you valuable time compared to painstakingly going through the footage manually. Not only that, you can fine-tune the sensitivity of each parameter to match your exact needs. This integrated tool cuts down on manual labor and makes sure only the images that truly require your attention are flagged. A new era of seamless and intelligent media management has arrived!

Effortless VOD Media Monitoring for Customized Profiles and Diverse

Markets: VOD content distributors can efficiently analyze and market multiple versions of a movie tailored to different market segments, factoring in the level of censorship. For instance, a child-friendly version of a VOD movie can have minimized exposure to sexual content, ensuring suitability for younger audiences.

Meet regulatory standards according to market: Etere AI-technology can automatically detect and filter out inappropriate content, ensuring that broadcasts adhere to regulatory standards and remain suitable for all audiences. With customizable censorship parameters, Etere can be tailored to match specific market sensitivities and cultural needs, providing a reliable solution for content compliance across multiple markets.

It's your all-in-one, fully customizable solution for superior content censorship. Experience unmatched flexibility, pinpoint accuracy, and remarkable efficiency, enabling you to effortlessly manage your content with confidence. Ready to transform your content management strategy?
