Music Manager Template

The intuitive interface of Etere Music Manager Lite ensures no missing schedules and automatically selects the most suitable music for each time slot.

In the music manager program, users can apply the same template for the entire period they want to generate the program. The system automatically selects the songs for an ideal playlist based on user-defined settings. In addition, the software leaves no unscheduled positions and is adjustable to suit station-specified attributes.

Etere Music Manager Lite automatically generates music patterns depending on the audience's response, ensuring the playlist creates the best experience for listeners. Etere Music Manager Lite is scalable and configurable to support unlimited stations and channels.

Etere offers a secure and convenient way to work remotely anywhere in today's connected world. Its intuitive web interface allows users to easily connect to the shared database from any location to share media and drive workflows.

Furthermore, Etere Music Manager Lite is fully integrated with Etere Radio Live to create, link, and manage multiple stations concurrently. With its cutting-edge technology, Etere Music Manager Lite streamlines your music scheduling and provides all the software tools you need to create the best listening experience for your viewers.
